DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 4 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

2. The drawings are objected to because Fig 5 is illegible. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR

1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3a. Claims 1-10 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Reitmeier, US 6,549,240.

In considering claims 1-2, 4, 7, 9-10 and 15,

Reitmeier discloses video decoder 120 (Figs 1, 2) which is then deinterlaced via 130 (Figs 1 and 2) and then resized (i.e. scaled) via horizontal resizer 150 and vertical resizer 140.

In considering claims 3, 5-6 and 8,

Reitmeier discloses the use of decoding MPEG signals including the MPEG-2 signals (i.e. meeting the claimed decompression limitation).

3b. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Carlsgaard et al., US 6,894,726

In considering claim 11,

Carlsgard discloses an integrated component (processor) including a deinterlacer 114 and a scaler 18, which processes information stored in memory 116 (Fig 1, F 2), meeting the claimed limitations.

3c. Claims 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Willis et al, US 6,573,941.

Willis discloses a decompression system 29 and a deinterlacer 32 (Fig 4).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carlsgaard et al., US 6,894,726

Carlsgaard does not explicitly recite decoding/decompressing interlaced frame.

Carlsgaard discloses a system, which is able to received, deinterlace then scale for display an interlaced signal, where the signals include NTSC/PAL and high definition signals. Although the use of a decoder/decompression (if signal is compressed) is conventional in order to receive/process/decode and decompress a signal which has been compressed/encoded and transmitted, the examiner nonetheless takes OFFICIAL NOTICE regarding such, since these elements are necessary in order to receive such signals, therefore being an obvious/necessary modification for Carlsgaard in order to receive/display both standard and high definition TV signals.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure—see newly cited references on attached form PTO-892.
